(By United Press)

At least 21 persons were killed as a result of the sub-zero weather centering over the middle west, according to data obtainable today.

Four were killed in Milwaukee, four in Oklahoma, two in St. Louis, two in Chicago, six in Michigan, one near Kansas City, Mo., and one in Kansas.

The deaths were due to fire from overheated stoves, falls, traffic accidents and exhaustion from cold.

The polar weather should lift from this territory within the next 36 hours, the weather bureau stated.

In the meantime the middle west is struggling with the gigantic task of clearing up the tangle of broken telephone and telegraph wires and poles sprawled over the countryside. Disrupted communication and slowing up of railroad and interurban service, where snow and sleet covered rails slowed down service to a snail's pace and lack of wire facilities force extreme caution.

The storm has shifted to Ohio, where the temperature dropped 40 degrees during the night. Zero weather is in prospect. More than 800 wire poles are down, disrupting communication.

Nearly all of Illinois, with the exception of the northern portion, is practically isolated. Limited service is obtainable to St. Louis and other southeastern Missouri points.

Several thousand persons are stranded in St. Louis because of slow train service. Trains are running from eight to twelve hours late. Nearly all trains from the west are hours late, according to railroad dispatchers in Chicago.

Property damage will run into the millions of dollars, it was estimated.

The only sizeable increase is in taxes on dues of athletic, social and sporting organizations, which jumped $277,000, to a total of $3,000,000.

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Dec. 20.—The dove of peace hovered over the twin cities today—despite the cold weather.

After the verbal battle between newspapers, mayors and citizens of the two cities over the smallpox situation, a conference was held in the state capitol late yesterday and a committee of three was placed in charge of efforts to end the epidemic.

The committee consists of Dr. A. J. Chesley, executive secretary of the State Board of Health; Dr. F. E. Harrington, Minneapolis health commissioner, and Dr. B. F. Simon, St. Paul health commissioner.

The three health officers are co-operating in efforts to have everybody in the twin cities vaccinated if possible.

For several days a wordy contest was staged over which city had the most cases of smallpox and accusations were hurled at each other by citizens of both cities about lack of necessary precautions being taken against furtherance of the epidemic.

INCOMPLETE WORK

POSED OF

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 20.—With an incomplete record behind it and an uncertain future ahead, Congress will adjourn today for the Christmas holidays.

During the last three weeks two important measures have been finally disposed of—the deficiency and navy reconditioning bills, which were hanging over from last session.

With the Muscle Shoals and postal salaries raises the Senate got into such a muddle that none of the leaders can foresee the outcome.

The seventeen appropriation bills which the House is making short work of, will require the Senate's attention as soon as it reconvenes. Three of them already have been passed by the House.

Opponents of the Underwood Muscle Shoals bill, encouraged by the 41 to 29 victory on the Walsh amendment making the measure to the Federal Water Power act feel confident they will be able to defeat the measure after the recess.

Senator Curtis, republican floor leader, declared he would abandon his efforts to get a vote before adjournment. He wants to clean up all important amendments, however, in the hope that a vote can be obtained as soon as the Senate comes back.

Senator Sterling who is in charge of administration plans to rush his bill for increased postal rates to meet the proposed raises in salaries of postal clerks, declared he hoped to have his bill before the Senate by January 5—the date scheduled for consideration of the measure by President Coolidge.

Hearings will be opened Tuesday and speeded through the holidays. Three postoffice committee members have been requested to join in the sessions so that separate hearings will not be required on the House side.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The proposal to refer the Muscle Shoals resolution to a commission for study is gaining ground, Senator Smoot, Utah, republican leader, announced today after a call at the White House.

"I believe the Senate will ultimately adopt the commission plan of disposing of the Muscle Shoals rather than adopt the Underwood bill," Smoot declared, confirming United Press dispatches of last Tuesday.

Smoot did not state that President Coolidge has indicated his approval of the commission plan but declared reports that he had received clearly indicated it might finally be adopted by the Senate when the Christmas holidays are over.

FOWL FROM PLANES

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 20.—Hunting wild fowl from airplanes has a terrifying effect upon game and if any general use should be made of aircraft in hunting, the result would be disastrous, says a report issued by the Biological Survey of the Department of Agriculture.

Of the $12,318.25 collected in fines from 591 arrests made through the administration of the migratory bird treaty, several cases involving hunting from airplanes were included, the report says.

Control of various predatory animals and rodent pests which are injurious to horticulture, forestry and stock growing on the western range has made fine progress during the past year, says the report. Federal funds amounting to $287,951.81 were used for destruction of predatory animals, including coyotes, wolves, mountain lions, bobcats and lynxes, and $159,714.61 was expended for the control of rodent pests. Co-operative funds from states infested by rodents amounted to $901,587.

(By United Press)

Milwaukee, Dec. 20.—After almost 24 hours of continuous grilling, George Salmon today confessed he shot and killed Walter Luedtke, policeman, while the officer was attempting to arrest him Thursday night. Salmon told police he shot Luedtke because he didn't want to be arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

Luedtke was shot and killed by Salmon after the officer had been called to the home of Salmon's brother to quiet a disturbance.

Salmon, said to have been under the influence of liquor, came to the home of his brother and berated the brother and his wife for having had the hair of their two girls, Vera, 11, and Gladys, 9, bobbed.

Luedtke arrived and was taking Salmon away when he started to make a sudden dash for freedom. During the scuffle Luedtke was mortally wounded and Salmon made his escape.

After wandering about the streets all night Salmon finally made his way to a grocery of a friend who had not heard about the shooting. He was asleep in the rear of the store when officers arrived. At first he denied having shot Luedtke, saying someone else had shot him.

After hours of continuous grilling Salmon finally broke down today and confessed the shooting.

A warrant charging first degree murder is to be issued by the district attorney today.

at St. Joseph's soon after arriving there, and two others were drowned in the river.

A switch bolt broke as the train was nearing the bridge three-quarters of a mile from the Soo Line depot here.

ADMINISTRATION
IS NOW FACING A
DUAL PROBLEMENDEAVORS TO RESTRAIN "BIG NAVY" DISCUSSIONREGARDS THE SAME AS MILITAR-ISTIC ARGUMENT

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 20.—With another effort to secure a Congressional investigation of naval strength under way in the House, the administration today was confronted with a dual problem in restraining "big navy" talk, which it regards as militaristic and unwise in the light of present international relations.

Representative Britten, Illinois republican, has opened his latest drive for a naval inquiry in the House. He has introduced a bill providing for appropriations of $101,400,000 to build more cruisers. In the hearings on the navy he hopes to secure from the navy department the information about the navy which was denied him when the House naval affairs committee dropped its projected questioning of Secretary Wilbur.

On the Senate side the request of the Senate naval affairs committee for information concerning foreign protests against elevation of guns on American battleships also opens the way for discussions of the navy which President Coolidge has sought to discourage for the present.

The administration looks to its lieutenants in both houses to prevent those moves from developing into serious difficulties.

BRITTEN INTRODUCES HIS RESOLUTION

Washington, Dec. 20.—A resolution directing the Secretary of the Navy to furnish the house with information on opposition from any foreign governments in connection with the modernization of certain capital ships of the United States navy by increasing the elevation and range of turret guns, was introduced today by Rep. Britten, Illinois republican.

Two Weeks Left for Men To File Claims

Less than two weeks left for buddies to register their claims for hospital treatment, vocational training, or compensation, with the U. S. Veterans Bureau. Time limit expires Jan. 1st, 1925, after which no claims are received. Go now to the nearest U. S. V. Bureau doctor and be examined. Such examination, placed on file with the Bureau, will enable you to secure any necessary aid later on. Failure to thus register your claim before Jan. 1st, outlaws your claim, as the law now reads. That's one thing to remember; another is that if you have dependents, and die before making application for the "federal bonus," your dependents will receive only one-third the amount they would get were your claim filed. Instead of getting "paid-up" insurance" the dependent would get the "cash value" of your bonus, which is about one-third of the insurance value. Any Legion post (there are 500 in Minnesota) will help you file your claim.

HIBBING

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Dec. 20.—Dropping 30 feet from a second story window of the Hennepin county court house, Gilbert Peterson, 27, charged with participation in the $10,000 fur robbery at Hibbing, escaped from custody today.

He was about to be taken back to Hibbing to face charges of grand larceny in connection with the robbery of the Itasca Bazaar August 30.

Peterson was arrested last Thursday in St. Paul. Chester Naseth, Hibbing chief of detectives, and John Pettit, deputy, co-operating with St. Paul police in making the arrest.

Pettit took the prisoner to the office of Deputy Sheriff John McGuire in Minneapolis this morning and left him in the room while he stepped to the door to speak to another deputy. The only other person in the room was Deputy Charles Brown, who was working at a desk and did not know that anyone had entered the room. He said that he felt a draft and turning found the window open. When Pettit returned Peterson had escaped. Apparently he had dropped 30 feet to a driveway below but escaped injury, for he had disappeared in a moment's time.

Pettit had planned to take a 9 o'clock train and was on his way to the depot when he stopped in McGuire's office. Search for Peterson continued this afternoon. One of the fur coats stolen in Hibbing was found in his room.

NATURAL FOR KIDS TO ENJOY MUSIC

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 19.—Spankings and music lessons no longer go hand in hand.

The modern child does not sneak out the side door to join companions, or sit wistfully on the piano bench and dream of the "gang" or the "ol' smimmin' hole."

This is a far cry from the boys and girls not many years ago, who thought it "sissified" to take music lessons.

Nevertheless it is true. Take that from Miss Lorain St. John, of Joplin, Mo., a music teacher, who spoke at the convention of the Missouri Music Teachers' association here.

Miss St. John said that is just as normal for children to be musical as it is for birds to sing.

She also said young children do not care for jazz. "If started correctly," children will learn to appreciate real music.

Berlin, Dec. 20.—Red troops supporting Leon Trotsky mutinied at Moscow and arrested M. Stalin, secretary-general of the communist party, imprisoning him in their barracks according to a dispatch to the Berliner Zeitung am Mittag from its Bucharest correspondent who quotes Odessa reports.

The troops, the report said, were angered by Soviet circulars branding Trotsky as a traitor.

Premier Rykov went to barracks and sought unsuccessfully to obtain Stalin's release, which was agreed to only on the condition that Stalin resign the secretaryship of the communist party.

Loyal troops, according to the report, then stormed the barracks and many were killed in the fighting that ensued.

Two generals are reported to have come out publicly for Trotsky, while the latter's supporters seized and occupied public buildings in many parts of Russia. It is reported that supporters of Trotsky at Nijni Novgorod and Kagan overwhelmed backers of Zinoviev. The dispatch includes:

"It is believed that in other cities the struggle between Trotsky and Zinoviev has assumed the character of civil war."

The Russian embassy at Berlin branded the report as "propaganda and lies, over which we shrug our shoulders."

Osborne C. Wood, son of the governor-general of the Philippines, who came into prominence through his amazingly successful speculation conducted by cable from Manila a year ago, is to be sued for divorce by his wife, the latter confided today.

Moreover, in a statement not untied with a little bitterness, Mrs. Wood said her young husband, who at present is in France, is not so successful in finance, and she didn't believe he had recently cleaned up $2,000,000 in the bull market because he had cabled her to "send him $16,000."

"Of course, I didn't do it," she added.

Mrs. Wood, who is at her father's home at Greenville, Del., said she and her husband had been separated for several months and "I shall start suit for divorce. I don't know where yet, nor do I know on what grounds."

DEFICIENCY AND NAVY RECONDITIONING BILLS DISPOSED OF

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 20.—With an incomplete record behind it and an uncertain future ahead, Congress will adjourn today for the Christmas holidays.

During the last three weeks two important measures have been finally disposed of—the deficiency and navy reconditioning bills, which were hanging over from last session.

With the Muscle Shoals and postal salaries raises the Senate got into such a muddle that none of the leaders can foresee the outcome.

The seventeen appropriation bills which the House is making short work of, will require the Senate's attention as soon as it reconvenes. Three of them already have been passed by the House.

Opponents of the Underwood Muscle Shoals bill, encouraged by the 41 to 29 victory on the Walsh amendment making the measure to the Federal Water Power act feel confident they will be able to defeat the measure after the recess.

Senator Curtis, republican floor leader, declared he would abandon his efforts to get a vote before adjournment. He wants to clean up all important amendments, however, in the hope that a vote can be obtained as soon as the Senate comes back.

Senator Sterling who is in charge of administration plans to rush his bill for increased postal rates to meet the proposed raises in salaries of postal clerks, declared he hoped to have his bill before the Senate by January 5—the date scheduled for consideration of the measure by President Coolidge.

Hearings will be opened Tuesday and speeded through the holidays. Three postoffice committee members have been requested to join in the sessions so that separate hearings will not be required on the House side.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The proposal to refer the Muscle Shoals resolution to a commission for study is gaining ground, Senator Smoot, Utah, republican leader, announced today after a call at the White House.

"I believe the Senate will ultimately adopt the commission plan of disposing of the Muscle Shoals rather than adopt the Underwood bill," Smoot declared, confirming United Press dispatches of last Tuesday.

Smoot did not state that President Coolidge has indicated his approval of the commission plan but declared reports that he had received clearly indicated it might finally be adopted by the Senate when the Christmas holidays are over.

Time limit expires Jan. 1st, 1925, after which no claims are received. Go now to the nearest U. S. V. Bureau doctor and be examined. Such examination, placed on file with the Bureau, will enable you to secure any necessary aid later on. Failure to thus register your claim before Jan. 1st, outlaws your claim, as the law now reads. That's one thing to remember; another is that if you have dependents, and die before making application for the "federal bonus," your dependents will receive only one-third the amount they would get were your claim filed. Instead of getting "paid-up" insurance, the dependent would get the "cash value" of your bonus, which is about one-third of the insurance value. Any Legion post (there are 500 in Minnesota) will help you file your claim.

DROPS 30 FEET AND ESCAPES IN MINNEAPOLIS

ALLEGED FUR ROBBER GETS AWAY FROM HENNEPIN COURT HOUSE

CHARGED WITH PARTICIPATION IN $10,000 FUR ROBBERY AT HIBBING

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Dec. 20.—Dropping 30 feet from a second story window of the Hennepin county court house, Gilbert Peterson, 27, charged with participation in the $10,000 fur robbery at Hibbing, escaped from custody today.

He was about to be taken back to Hibbing to face charges of grand larceny in connection with the robbery of the Itasca Bazaar August 30.

Peterson was arrested last Thursday in St. Paul. Chester Naseth, Hibbing chief of detectives, and John Pettit, deputy, co-operated with St. Paul police in making the arrest.

Pettit took the prisoner to the office of Deputy Sheriff John McGuire in Minneapolis this morning and left him in the room while he stepped to the door to speak to another deputy. The only other person in the room was Deputy Charles Brown, who was working at a desk and did not know that anyone had entered the room. He said that he felt a draft and turning found the window open. When Pettit returned Peterson had escaped. Apparently he had dropped 30 feet to a driveway below but escaped injury, for he had disappeared in a moment's time. Pettit had planned to take a 9 o'clock train and was on his way to the depot when he stopped in McGuire's office. Search for Peterson continued this afternoon. One of the fur coats stolen in Hibbing was found in his room.

NATURAL FOR KIDS TO ENJOY MUSIC

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 19.—Spankings and music lessons no longer go hand in hand.

The modern child does not sneak out the side door to join companions, or sit wistfully on the piano bench and dream of the "gang" or the "ol' smimmin' hole."

This is a far cry from the boys and girls not many years ago, who thought it "sissified" to take music lessons.

Nevertheless it is true. Take that from Miss Lorain St. John, of Joplin, Mo., a music teacher, who spoke at the convention of the Missouri Music Teachers' association here.

Miss St. John said that is just as normal for children to be musical as it is for birds to sing.

She also said young children do not care for jazz. "If started correctly," children will learn to appreciate real music.

SECY.-GENERAL OF COMMUNIST PARTY ARRESTED

SOLDIERS AT MOSCOW IMPRISON HIM IN THEIR BAR-RACKS

TROOPS ANGERED BY SOVIET CIRCULARS BRANDING TROTSKY AS TRAITOR

(By United Press)
Berlin, Dec. 20.—Red troops supporting Leon Trotsky mutinied at Moscow and arrested M. Stalin, secretary-general of the communist party, imprisoning him in their barracks according to a dispatch to the Berliner Zeitung am Mittag from its Bucharest correspondent who quotes Odessa reports.

The troops, the report said, were angered by Soviet circulars branding Trotsky as a traitor.

Premier Rykov went to barracks and sought unsuccessfully to obtain Stalin's release, which was agreed to only on the condition that Stalin resign the secretaryship of the communist party.

Loyal troops, according to the report, then stormed the barracks and many were killed in the fighting that ensued.

Two generals are reported to have come out publicly for Trotsky, while the latter's supporters seized and occupied public buildings in many parts of Russia. It is reported that supporters of Trotsky at Nijni Novgorod and Kagan overwhelmed backers of Zinoviev. The dispatch includes:

"It is believed that in other cities the struggle between Trotsky and Zinoviev has assumed the character of civil war."

The Russian embassy at Berlin branded the report as "propaganda and lies, over which we shrug our shoulders."

LUCKY IN WALL STREET, UNLUCKY IN LOVE, REPORTED

OSBORNE C. WOOD PLAYED STOCK MARKET BY CABLE

WIFE SUES HIM FOR DIVORCE, GROUNDS OF SAME UNKNOWN

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—Lucky in Wall street, unlucky in love.

Osborne C. Wood, son of the governor-general of the Philippines, who came into prominence through his amazingly successful speculation conducted by cable from Manila a year ago, is to be sued for divorce by his wife, the latter confided today.

Moreover, in a statement not untimed with a little bitterness, Mrs. Wood said her young husband, who at present is in France, is not so successful in finance, and she didn't believe he had recently cleaned up $2,000,000 in the bull market because he had cabled her to "send him $16,000."

"Of course, I didn't do it," she added.

Mrs. Wood, who is at her father's home at Greenville, Del., said she and her husband had been separated for several months and "I shall start suit for divorce. I don't know where yet, nor do I know on what grounds."

DOESN'T INTEND TO RETURN TO U. S.

Paris, Dec. 20.—Osborne C. Wood, son of Major-General Wood, whose wife is threatening suit against him for divorce, "doesn't intend to return soon to the United States."

Wood made this statement after it was announced he made a recent "cleanup," this time of more than $200,000 in Wall street. The young financier did not refer to his wife.

Where to Worship Sunday

"The kings of the earth are men of might,
And cities are burned for their delight,
And the skies rain death in the silent night,
And the hills belch death all day!
But the King of Heaven Who made them all

He lies in the straw by the oxen's stall—
Let them think of him today!"

BUSH WAS A NEMESIS OF THE BROWNS

ALWAYS one finds carping criticism of the Bush deal, some asserting that Miller Huggins is getting the best of the deal by receiving Urban Shocker for Joe Bullet. True, Shocker has been a hard pitcher for the Yankees to solve, but for that matter, as asserted by an Associated Press dispatch, Bush was a greater Nemesis to the Browns than Shocker ever was to the Huggins.

The baseball records show that Bush defeated the Browns in 17 consecutive games he pitched against them in a stretch of three years. In detail, it is recorded he beat them seven straight in 1922, six times in 1923, and four in a row last season before the St. Louis team finally got out of its slump.

Shocker, on the other hand, ceased to terrify the Yankees last season, and lost five games to them while winning only two. Bush is considered one of the best hitting pitchers in the American League. Miller Huggins this season used him as a pinch hitter and he delivered the goods. Bush, preparing for the day which is inevitable for every pitcher, is developing his fielding talent so he can take a place in the outer garden should the trusty arm fail to function.

Brainerd at all times has honored Bush and he has never forgotten the home town nor any of the home town people. The writer saw him pitch in New York in the summer of 1922. He wears the Bush smile, no matter how the game goes and never offers an alibi when he loses. He should have years of pitching before him and it takes no great prophet to see that he will be the star to take the box whenever the Browns face the Yankees in a crucial game. His knowledge of the Yankees will serve him in good stead.

As for Brainerd, many of our townsmen will find it easier to slip to St. Louis to see Bush in action than to cover half the continent to see Joe Bullet perform with the Huggins. (What's the wave length?)

Bush has a splendid home in a fashionable suburb of Philadelphia. His wife has relatives in the East. The transfer to the Browns no doubt will cause him to change his residence to St. Louis. Philadelphia was his first home, for it was to Connie Mack that Bush first traveled when he passed in one season from the Brainerd sandlots to Missoula and thence to the Athletics, thus playing in three classes of baseball, lowest to the highest, in one season. He is a member of the Philadelphia Elks lodge and fans of the city presented him with an automobile in the first year of his world series success.

Two years ago one Saturday Bush took us about New York, we saw the "Follies" and visited the Palais Royale and when we went to bed we slept late next day. In the afternoon we went to the ball park, starting early so we could see him practice, as he was to pitch.

"Oh, I always get up early on Sunday," said Bush in answer to a query. "I went to mass. I never miss it," said he.

Taking care of himself as he does, following a strict line of exercise, Bush will be good for years more as a pitcher and many years more as a fielder. He is the one big advertisement of Brainerd on the sports map of the world.

PAGAN PARENTS ARE SCORED

CHILDREN cannot attain their highest development, morally and physically as well as mentally, where the parents devote little or no time to them, because the latter are so engrossed in worldly pleasures. A recent sermon delivered by Rev. Willard B. Lampe, pastor of the West Presbyterian church of St. Louis, covered this phase of the situation most thoroughly. The pagan environment in which young people live today, said the minister, is one of the greatest obstacles against which the church must work.

"Parents are to blame when they let their children sleep all Sunday morning instead of sending them to church. The parents would rather make the effort to send these same children to dancing school than church.

"A lot of pious people treat the Bible like a Ouija board. They think they know the book when they open it at random and read a passage which they think applies to their case.

"In the equipment of the church to develop child life there was never more dumbness shown by boards of churches than today. You can't expect young men and women to get any enthusiasm out of church when there is no adequate place for them to meet for instruction. The young people are stuck in the belfry or in the furnace room and you can't expect them to like it."

Such a situation regarding instruction of the children and inadequate or unsuitable quarters for them may exist in St. Louis, but does not obtain in Brainerd. Here the child is of primary importance. Every effort is made to instruct the children religiously, to provide light and airy rooms, to direct the child to the church and to continue sustaining his interest and winning his devotion.

REGARDING the New York World's pronouncement against the proposed child labor amendment, the St. Cloud Journal-Press says significantly: "Many of the northern states now have adequate laws, and Minnesota has given ample protection to its children. The states that take the position that this regulation is a state matter, and that the proposed amendment is an invasion of state rights, should at least get in line with a better civilization, and protect the children from industrial slavery, that robs them of their childhood, and stunts them physically, mentally and spiritually."

PROF. ROBERT COOLEY ANGELL, University of Michigan, says Ann Arbor has too much "hero worship for football captains, midnight dances, prize social life above academic work, and outside interests." That may be the case at Michigan, but it's not so at Notre Dame, where there's a curfew law, few dances, and where its football team on the road or at home, goes to bed at 9 o'clock and shuns, like the rest of the students, the bright lights.

NEW sea tales will have to be evolved when Dr. Anton Flettner's boats, discarding all manner of wooden masts, rigging and sails, take to the seas. Revolving cylinders, mounted on strong masts of steel, take the place of cumbersome sails. One can see that the new boat also reduces vessel crews.

SCHOLARS REVEAL BIBLE AS POETRY OF THE HIGHEST FORM

Chicago, Dec. 19.—More complete knowledge of the Hebrew tongue, acquired during the last few years by American scholars, makes possible a more accurate translation of the Bible, showing that not only the book of Psalms but other books as well are poetry of the highest and purest form, the University of Chicago announced today.

Headed by Prof. J. M. P. Smith, a group of university professors are now translating the Bible, preserving the true poetic qualities of the Hebrew masterpiece. The book of Job and part of the book of Psalms is already completed, the university announced.

The 23d psalm, one of the most widely quoted portions of the Bible, has been translated as follows:

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;

"In green meadows he makes me lie down;

"To refreshing waters he leads me. "He renews my life.

"He guides me in the safe paths for His name's sake.

"Even though I walk in the darkest ravine,

"I fear no harm; for Thou art with me.

"Thou layest a table before me in the presence of my foes;

"Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup overflows;

"Only goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life.

"And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord down to old age."

LIBEL CASE TO BE HEARD NEXT JUNE

(Walker Pilot)

Disappointment throughout the county was unconcealed because of the continuance of the John L. Morrison and Alfred Lambert cases.

Both cases were on the criminal docket for trial at this term of court. The cases promised interesting developments as they have to do with local people with the exception of Morrison who is a widely known character, having played a strong role in the election two years ago as well as the election just passed.

During the opening of court, Attorney Scrutchin of Bemidji, legal advisor of Morrison, gave notice that later he would make a motion for a continuance and we understand added that he did not think the request would be strenuously opposed. Last Thursday Mr. Morrison appeared before the court and filed his motion for continuance in which he set forth that a material witness, one Ole Kinneberg, was in the state of Arizona and could not appear to testify at this time but that if a continuance was granted he would appear and give testimony to substantiate statements already sworn to. Attorney Rogers, for the state, argued for trial at this term of court. After taking the matter under advisement Judge Stanton granted continuance until the June term.

On top of this Morrison, through his attorney, Chas. Scrutchin, has filed an affidavit of prejudice, setting forth in the instrument the belief that Judge Stanton will not be free from prejudice and bias, therefore unable to try the case impartially.

This insures that some one of the other district judges will sit on the bench when the case does come up for trial, but the case will not be taken out of the county.

Pearls, Flowers, Among Prominent Accessories

By her accessories you will know her, the woman of 1924. Her gown is straight and simple and permits of few elaborations. The accessories must be few and well chosen, pearls will have a place. A judiciously placed flower or the manner in which she wears her jewelry are depended upon to supply the note of sophistication. A clever contrast in black and white is present in a choker necklace of black pearls worn with a long strand of white baroque pearls.

Especially effective to bring out the coloring of the blond is a shaded yellow velvet rose on the shoulder of the gown, matching a gold choker necklace. Another necklace which contrasts black and white pearls alternates a group of white pearls with a single black one; a sort of tassel is formed by a dangling string of the pearls. Or one may knot her pearls as many times as her taste and the length of the strand allow.

For Sports Wear

Topcoats for sports wear frequently have an upstanding collar of leopard, fitch, or some other noticeable fur. Some of the coats, in black wool, are lined with gay plaid, and these are not likely to have the fur collar.

Colors for Evening

Among the colors for evening accessories, such as fans, stockings and jewelry popular today, are sea green, jade green, American beauty, pale blue, turquoise, sunset and rose.

Paris Noise Protection

Street noises of Paris have become so great that a chemist has invented a tiny plastic ball that will fit an ear and shut out sounds, with benefit especially to "light sleepers," nervous persons and invalids.

Oats, Richer Than Corn,

Favored for Dairy Feed

Oats will be more largely fed this year than usual. Their abundance and the shortage of corn will induce farmers to depend more than usual upon their supply of oats to compound the dairy ration.

Oats are richer in protein content than corn. For this reason they make an excellent dairy feed. Best results are obtained when they are ground or crushed. The bulky nature of this grain, together with their richer protein content, admirably fits them for mixing with other feeds. Because of these desirable characteristics, and the fact that oat prices are on a lower parity than most other grains, farmers should not sell too closely of the grain, especially dairymen who desire to keep up a maximum flow of milk.

Dairymen Are Careless in Cooling Products

This is the season of the year when milk and cream producers become careless in the cooling of their product after milking or separation. The cool nights lead one to believe that nature will take care of the cooling operation. Milk and cream, however, cool very slowly in air or in water when not stirred. The center of the can remains warm for a number of hours, allowing opportunity for rapid bacterial development. The result is milk sours quickly and cream is second grade when delivered to the creamery.

BUSH WAS A NEMESIS OF THE BROWNS

ALWAYS one finds carping criticism of the Bush deal, some asserting that Miller Huggins is getting the best of the deal by receiving Urban Shocker for Joe Bullet. True, Shocker has been a hard pitcher for the Yankees to solve, but for that matter, as asserted by an Associated Press dispatch, Bush was a greater Nemesis to the Browns than Shocker ever was to the Huggins.

The baseball records show that Bush defeated the Browns in 17 consecutive games he pitched against them in a stretch of three years. In detail, it is recorded he beat them seven straight in 1922, six times in 1923, and four in a row last season before the St. Louis team finally got out of its slump.

Shocker, on the other hand, ceased to terrify the Yankees last season, and lost five games to them while winning only two. Bush is considered one of the best hitting pitchers in the American League. Miller Huggins this season used him as a pinch hitter and he delivered the goods. Bush, preparing for the day which is inevitable for every pitcher, is developing his fielding talent so he can take a place in the outer garden should the trusty arm fail to function.

Brainerd at all times has honored Bush and he has never forgotten the home town nor any of the home town people. The writer saw him pitch in New York in the summer of 1922. He wears the Bush smile, no matter how the game goes and never offers an alibi when he loses. He should have years of pitching before him and it takes no great prophet to see that he will be the star to take the box whenever the Browns face the Yankees in a crucial game. His knowledge of the Yankees will serve him in good stead.

As for Brainerd, many of our townsmen will find it easier to slip to St. Louis to see Bush in action than to cover half the continent to see Joe Bullet perform with the Huggins.

Bush has a splendid home in a fashionable suburb of Philadelphia. His wife has relatives in the East. The transfer to the Browns no doubt will cause him to change his residence to St. Louis. Philadelphia was his first home, for it was to Connie Mack that Bush first traveled when he passed in one season from the Brainerd sandlots to Missoula and thence to the Athletics, thus playing in three classes of baseball, lowest to the highest, in one season. He is a member of the Philadelphia Elks lodge and fans of the city presented him with an automobile in the first year of his world series success.

Two years ago one Saturday Bush took us about New York, we saw the "Follies" and visited the Palais Royale and when we went to bed we slept late next day. In the afternoon we went to the ball park, starting early so we could see him practice, as he was to pitch.

"Oh, I always get up early on Sunday," said Bush in answer to a query, "I went to mass. I never miss it," said he.

Taking care of himself as he does, following a strict line of exercise, Bush will be good for years more as a pitcher and many years more as a fielder. He is the one big advertisement of Brainerd on the sports map of the world.

PAGAN PARENTS ARE SCORED

CHILDREN cannot attain their highest development, morally and physically as well as mentally, where the parents devote little or no time to them, because the latter are so engrossed in worldly pleasures. A recent sermon delivered by Rev. Willard B. Lampe, pastor of the West Presbyterian church of St. Louis, covered this phase of the situation most thoroughly. The pagan environment in which young people live today, said the minister, is one of the greatest obstacles against which the church must work.

"Parents are to blame when they let their children sleep all Sunday morning instead of sending them to church. The parents would rather make the effort to send these same children to dancing school than church.

"A lot of pious people treat the Bible like a Ouija board. They think they know the book when they open it at random and read a passage which they think applies to their case.

"In the equipment of the church to develop child life there was never more dumbness shown by boards of churches than today. You can't expect young men and women to get any enthusiasm out of church when there is no adequate place for them to meet for instruction. The young people are stuck in the belfry or in the furnace room and you can't expect them to like it."

Such a situation regarding instruction of the children and inadequate or unsuitable quarters for them may exist in St. Louis, but does not obtain in Brainerd. Here the child is of primary importance. Every effort is made to instruct the children religiously, to provide light and airy rooms, to direct the child to the church and to continue sustaining his interest and winning his devotion.

REGARDING the New York World's pronouncement against the proposed child labor amendment, the St. Cloud Journal-Press says significantly: "Many of the northern states now have adequate laws, and Minnesota has given ample protection to its children. The states that take the position that this regulation is a state matter, and that the proposed amendment is an invasion of state rights, should at least get in line with a better civilization, and protect the children from industrial slavery, that robs them of their childhood, and stunts them physically, mentally and spiritually."

PROF. ROBERT COOLEY ANGELL, University of Michigan, says Ann Arbor has too much "hero worship for football captains, midnight dances, prize social life above academic work, and outside interests." That may be the case at Michigan, but it's not so at Notre Dame, where there's a curfew law, few dances, and where its football team on the road or at home, goes to bed at 9 o'clock and shuns, like the rest of the students, the bright lights.

WINNIPEG KIDDIES AT PARK SOON

15 Kiddie Actors, Every One an Artists in Their Particular Line of Endeavor

AGES RANGE FROM 8 TO 12

Entire Company in Charge of Trained Nurse, School Teacher and Escort

The Winnipeg Kiddies, an organization of kiddie actors that came into existence through their work on behalf of the different war work societies, during the early part of the war, were practically forced through popular demand to carry on as a professional organization. These young troupers, every one of them an artist, have practically spent their lives in the work that they are now doing, enjoying every minute of it. They are coming to the New Park Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 27 and 28, two matinees and two nights.

There are 15 children ranging in age from eight to twelve, every one an artist in their particular line of endeavour. There is little Frankie Bird who is quite well known as the Eddie Leonard vest pocket edition, his specialty being, all the known step dances.

Jimmie Coghill, twelve years old, the comedian with the present company, has stage presence, ability and personality that is envied by professionals with many more years' experience than Jimmie has had.

Rose Ames, a very petite dancer of eleven summers, is as dainty a little performer as you can ever hope to see; her repertoire of dances include every dance from the classic Greek, toe dancing and the more modern interpretative dances of the present-day stars.

A treat is in store for the lovers of good music—twelve-year-old Sarah Levine, a pianist that such well known contemporaries as Paderewski and Percy Grainger, on hearing her playing, predicted for her success that will eventually place her in a position of being internationally known.

Harold and Clifford Needham are also well and favorably known to radio fans throughout the United States as well as Canada for their ability as entertainers, many people having expressed their appreciation of the work of these kiddies as broadcast through station CKY, Winnipeg, and the scrap book of these two contain many complimentary cards from fans all over America.

Frankie Barclay, the diminutive Walter Kelly, with his stories and dialect, is sure to illicit favorable comment from his audience.

If you are a lover of the modern blue singers and syncopation, Gladys and Sarah Kaplan are sure to surprise you agreeably with their renditions of the latest and most popular numbers.

Elsie Powell's pantomimic dancing interpretations are in a class by themselves; her wardrobe for her various numbers is of the very best procurable, and her Jockey dance, scarecrow dance, and eccentric skeleton dance, are sure fire numbers that have elicited the highest of praise from critics throughout the country.

The wonderful contralto voice of little Miss Sylvia James will thrill you with its purity and sweetness, and her rendition of her various numbers, with the feeling, the perfect enunciation, is something that one must marvel at.

The entire company of little artists are under the care of a trained nurse, a school teacher, and a personal escort, and form a real happy family. They enjoy every minute of their tour even to the time that they put in in study. Their ensemble numbers are perfect in every way and as there is not any more publicity given to one than to another, the company is never threatened with temperamental disruption as are other companies that have an equal number of stars.

Hick town moving picture censorship boards had better look out.

well as a long-haired male reformer, of a type not unfamiliar to even the larger cities, are on Buster's board.

And, boy, what fights they stage! The Dempsey-Pirpo first round was nothing compared to the rows in which Buster's board of censorship engage. WALTON LEAGUE TO STAGE DRIVE AGAINST GAME VIOLATORS

St. Paul, Dec. 20.—The Minnesota division of the Isaak Walton League of America is preparing to launch a year-long drive against game and fish law violators which will extend to every corner of the state.

This was announced today by Fred H. Doellner, secretary of the state division, who is in active charge of the work.

The campaign will be carried out along two lines, according to Mr. Doellner. First, through active cooperation of all chapters of the league in actually stopping violations, and second, through a program of legislation to be pushed this winter.

Will H. Dilg, founder and president of the national organization, will come to Minnesota in January to lead a drive for additional chapters of the league here. A national organizer of the league will follow Mr. Dilg.

WINNIPEG KIDDIES AT PARK SOON

15 Kiddie Actors, Every One an Artists in Their Particular Line of Endeavor

AGES RANGE FROM 8 TO 12

Entire Company in Charge of Trained Nurse, School Teacher and Escort

The Winnipeg Kiddies, an organization of kiddie actors that came into existence through their work on behalf of the different war work societies, during the early part of the war, were practically forced through popular demand to carry on as a professional organization. These young troupers, every one of them an artist, have practically spent their lives in the work that they are now doing, enjoying every minute of it. They are coming to the New Park Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 27 and 28, two matinees and two nights.

There are 15 children ranging in age from eight to twelve, every one an artist in their particular line of endeavour. There is little Frankie Bird who is quite well known as the Eddie Leonard vest pocket edition, his specialty being, all the known step dances.

Jimmie Coghill, twelve years old, the comedian with the present company, has stage presence, ability and personality that is envied by professionals with many more years' experience than Jimmie has had.

Rose Ames, a very petite dancer of eleven summers, is as dainty a little performer as you can ever hope to see; her repertoire of dances include every dance from the classic Greek, toe dancing and the more modern interpretative dances of the present-day stars.

A treat is in store for the lovers of good music—twelve-year-old Sarah Levine, a pianist that such well known contemporaries as Paderewski and Percy Grainger, on hearing her playing, predicted for her success that will eventually place her in a position of being internationally known.

Harold and Clifford Needham are also well and favorably known to radio fans throughout the United States as well as Canada for their ability as entertainers, many people having expressed their appreciation of the work of these kiddies as broadcast through station CKY, Winnipeg, and the scrap book of these two contain many complimentary cards from fans all over America.

Frankie Barclay, the diminutive Walter Kelly, with his stories and dialect, is sure to illicit favorable comment from his audience.

If you are a lover of the modern blue singers and syncopation, Gladys and Sarah Kaplan are sure to surprise you agreeably with their renditions of the latest and most popular numbers.

Elsie Powell's pantomimic dancing interpretations are in a class by themselves; her wardrobe for her various numbers is of the very best procurable, and her Jockey dance, scarecrow dance, and eccentric skeleton dance, are sure fire numbers that have elicited the highest of praise from critics throughout the country.

The wonderful contralto voice of little Miss Sylvia James will thrill you with its purity and sweetness, and her rendition of her various numbers, with the feeling, the perfect enunciation, is something that one must marvel at.

The entire company of little artists are under the care of a trained nurse, a school teacher, and a personal escort, and form a real happy family. They enjoy every minute of their tour even to the time that they put in in study. Their ensemble numbers are perfect in every way and as there is not any more publicity given to one than to another, the company is never threatened with temperamental disruption as are other companies that have an equal number of stars.

EAU CLAIRE NORMAL SCORES SURPRISING WIN AT CARLETON

Northfield, Dec. 18.—Eau Claire normal basketball team upset the dope by winning an extra period 17 to 14 game from Carleton.

It marked the first defeat of a Carleton floor quint on its own floor since 1919, and also spoiled the wonderful record of 19 games and no defeats.

Coach Cowles' team failed to show the fight and playing of other Carleton teams, and although the game ended a 14 to 14 tie, the Wisconsin team played far the better floor game and their team play was nice. O'Reilly put the game on ice for

Dr. Steinach Method Used in New Jazz Picture at Lyceum

Adolphe Menjou, Eleanor Boardman, and Conrad Nagel have the chief roles in "Sinners in Silk," the new Metro-Goldwyn picture showing at the Lyceum Theatre Sunday and Monday. This production, which is the first made by Hobart Henley for this organization, tells the story of an elderly man made young by the Steinach method, and what happens when he falls in love with a typical flapper of the present day.

The very large cast also includes Hedda Hopper, Jean Hersholt, Edward Connelly, John Patrick, Miss du Pont, Virginia Lee Corbin, Dorothy Dwan, Ann Luther and others. "Sinners in Silk" is heralded as the best picture yet of the jazz series.

Keaton Censors Censor Boards

Hick town moving picture censorship boards had better look out.

Buster Keaton has made the funniest satire on their methods that ever came out of Hollywood.

In "Sherlock Jr." his latest Metro comedy which is coming to the New Park tonight and Sunday. Buster shows the average small town board of cinematographic censorship at work. Two short-haired women, as well as a long-haired male reformer, of a type not unfamiliar to even the larger cities, are on Buster's board.

And, boy, what fights they stage! The Dempsey-Firpo first round was nothing compared to the rows in which Buster's board of censorship engage. A perfectly harmless motion picture, after it is dissected by this board, is clipped, cut and sheared down until nothing is left of it except the tag reading "Passed by the Hickville Board of Censorship."

SLICK BANDITS EVOLVE PLAN TO DELAY THE HUE AND CRY

New York, Dec. 20.—Three young members of New York's bandit coterie offered something new in get-aways recently after they had ruined a day for Abraham Scholwook, who conducts a beauty parlor to which every afternoon flock the younger of the East Side gentler sex.

Before he had time to wonder if they were bill collectors, they let him know what they were. As it turned out, they weren't averse to collecting knickknacks, either, and Scholwook had one of those on his fingers. It sparkled under the lights and he valued it at $2,800.

"Stick 'em up," the bandits said in the customary fashion, and Scholwook and his porter did. As he raised his hands, the lights in the diamond began to sparkle and the bandits saw it. That was the first of the loot. A watch and chain worth $175 came out of Scholwook's pocket. Then they found a roll of bills and they pocketed that. It was $500.

It was after all this that the bandits proved themselves smart. The nighttime crowds were just beginning to pour into the streets, and they didn't want to take the risk of dodging a posse Scholwook might organize. So before they left they assisted the beauty parlor owner and his assistant in removing their trousers. Tucking the garments under their arms they fled.

Read, But Don't Look

Scholwook ordered his porter to run to the street and yell for help. The porter declined — positively. Scholwook ran to the door and started to open it. But he came back.

Then, covering his eyes with his hands he dashed wildly out. He yelled; a jeering crowd came. Along with the crowd came a policeman. While the crowd laughed, the policeman listened to his story. But it was too late. The bandits had gone.

NEW JERSEY CHICKENS ALSO BARRED BY LIVESTOCK SANITARY BOARD

St. Paul, Dec. 20.—An embargo against shipments of poultry into or through Minnesota from New York or New Jersey is now effective in Minnesota.

This regulation was ordered yesterday by the state livestock sanitary board to prevent the disease called "fowl pest," or "fowl play," now so serious in New York, from spreading into Minnesota.

The disease is so virulent that it is known to have killed a carload of chickens in less than three hours.

The quarantine against New York and New Jersey fowl includes "hens, roosters and capons."

Atty. Gen. Clifford L. Hilton approved the quarantine measure as to its legal form.

CALIFORNIA PLANS TO MAKE FIGHT RULES MORE STRICT

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 18.—The boxing commission that will regulate the 12-round game in this state will be one that is certain to make promoters and boxers uphold the law to the limit.

That was made certain when Friend W. Richardson gave out the following statement:

"To me the matter of the new prize fight commission is a small and objectionable duty. It cannot compare in importance to the appointment on the railroad commission or judicial appointments, but, strangely, hundreds of people seem to be interested in prize fighters, while only a few care anything about other really important appointments."

"I am anxious to obtain the best men possible on the athletic commission, as the initiative law politely but incorrectly calls it. I want men of high character, courage and some knowledge of this alleged sport in order that the fight game be kept as clean as possible. I doubt the ability of any commission to put prize fighting on a plane of cleanliness and squareness, but will do my part by appointing the best commission obtainable."

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL UP JAN. 15

STATEMENT MADE BY REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER LONGWORTH

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 20.—The $55,000,000 rivers and harbors bill will come up "about January 15," Representative Longworth, Ohio, republican floor leader, announced in the House today.

Longworth said a major portion of the week following the Christmas holidays will be taken up by appropriation bills.

The treasury and postoffice supply bills are expected to be passed and sent to the Senate by January 7, when the harbors bill will be reported to the House, he said.

The McFadden bill permitting national banks to compete with state banks, Longworth said, is expected to come up shortly after New Year's. Longworth said the House had established a record in passing three appropriation bills before Christmas. He expressed a "great feeling of pride" at the unusual amount of business transacted thus far and thanked members for co-operation.

Monarchists In Germany Propose To Put Son of Crown Prince on Throne

(By United Press)

Berlin, Dec. 18.—German monarchists have developed a new idea for restoration of the Hohenzollern dynasty, namely, coronation of the crown prince's eldest son Wilhelm, 19, who would, however, be placed under the guardianship of Prince Eitel Fritz.

Accomplishment of this plan, according to General Von Schoenaich—kinsman of the Kaiserin Hermine—would be "the end of the German Reich." Writing in the newspaper "Die Welt am Montag," Schoenaich characterizes Eitel Fritz as "personally a fine fellow, but of limited mentality—a straw doll in the hands of the great economic powers and their ambitious henchmen."

The ambition to have the crown prince's eldest son on the throne is not new, but the plan to place him under the guardianship of Prince Eitel Fritz is a novel turn in the efforts of the men who yearn for the return of the "good old monarchist days."

of "ignoble weapons" in their fight against men who have turned to the republic.

Schoenaich says they have hung the social boycott on old officers who dare to speak or work for the new regime.

It is true that the monarchists have put on their black list Schoenaich and his republican colleague, General Von Deimling, Baron Von Zedlitz-Truetzschler, publishers of revelations about the madness of the Kaiser's court, as well as other contemporaries of the old regime.

"The monarchist powers," says Schoenaich, "are fighting with all means at their disposition. One of these is the brutal weapon of the social boycott. It is very bitter to be forced to break with circles which one has loved his life long. This weapon is hence so effective, because most men shrink from this bitterness. But this weapon is also the most immoral one, for it kills the courage of honorable conviction." Answering charges that republican officers have broken their oath to their king, Schoenaich reveals that in the Great Headquarters during the war, a group of officers seriously considered forcibly removing the Kaiser.

"Whether that would have been valuable for the conduct of the war is a question by itself," he writes.

"But those who had this idea in minds were not traitors, but rather men who loved their fatherland and to whom the fatherland stood higher than the person of the monarch."

London's Dangers

London, Dec. 19.—The streets of this city are becoming increasingly perilous. During the first ten months of 1924 more than six hundred persons were killed and 61,964 injured in street accidents. This is an average of 100 deaths per annum more than 1923.

MOONSHINE WHISKEY

Like cheap soft coal usually finds its way to the ultimate consumer ONCE, but once for the most of us is enough.

The poisonous nature of the one rivals the fire hazard of the other and discerning people should pay out good money for neither.

"KENTUCKY SPECIAL" COAL is NOT Moonshine

But it contains a powerful "kick" just the same. By "kick" we refer to the high percentage of heat units per ton, which after all determines the actual value of any coal, rather than the weight over the scale.

We sell "Kentucky Special" because we know it is the best soft coal that money can buy, high in heat units, clean and very low in ash.

We stand behind this coal with a guarantee of entire satisfaction, removing the coal from your bin without extra expense in case you should feel at all dissatisfied with its performance. We don't know how to make a stronger guarantee than this.

Order a Ton Today and Be the Judge

We also handle some cheaper soft coal at $10.00 and $11.00 per ton that we can assure you is better quality than most soft coal being offered at these prices.

That was made certain when Friend W. Richardson gave out the following statement:

"To me the matter of the new prize fight commission is a small and objectionable duty. It cannot compare in importance to the appointments on the railroad commission or judicial appointments, but, strangely, hundreds of people seem to be interested in prize fighters, while only a few care anything about other really important appointments.

"I am anxious to obtain the best men possible on the athletic commission, as the initiative law politely but incorrectly calls it. I want men of high character, courage and some knowledge of this alleged sport in order that the fight game be kept as clean as possible. I doubt the ability of any commission to put prize fighting on a plane of cleanliness and squareness, but will do my part by appointing the best commission obtainable."

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL UP JAN. 15

STATEMENT MADE BY REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER LONGWORTH

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 20.—The $55,000,000 rivers and harbors bill will come up "about January 15," Representative Longworth, Ohio, republican floor leader, announced in the House today.

Longworth said a major portion of the week following the Christmas holidays will be taken up by appropriation bills.

The treasury and postoffice supply bills are expected to be passed and sent to the Senate by January 7, when the harbors bill will be reported to the House, he said.

The McFadden bill permitting national banks to compete with state banks, Longworth said, is expected to come up shortly after New Years.

Longworth said the House had established a record in passing three appropriation bills before Christmas. He expressed a "great feeling of pride" at the unusual amount of business transacted thus far and thanked members for co-operation.

Monarchists In Germany Propose To Put Son of Crown Prince on Throne

(By United Press)

Berlin, Dec. 18.—German monarchists have developed a new idea for restoration of the Hohenzollern dynasty, namely, coronation of the crown prince's eldest son Wilhelm, 19, who would, however, be placed under the guardianship of Prince Eitel Fritz.

Accomplishment of this plan, according to General Von Schoenaich—kinsman of the Kaiserin Hermine—would be "the end of the German Reich." Writing in the newspaper "Die Welt am Montag," Schoenaich characterizes Eitel Fritz as "personally a fine fellow, but of limited mentality—a straw doll in the hands of the great economic powers and their ambitious henchmen."

The ambition to have the crown prince's eldest son on the throne is not new, but the plan to place him under the guardianship of Prince Eitel Fritz is a novel turn in the efforts of the men who yearn for the return of the "good old monarchist days."

Schoenaich, leader of the new republican defense organization "Republican Banner Schwartz-Rot-Gold" incidentally takes a bitter fling at the monarchist groups for their use of "ignoble weapons" in their fight against men who have turned to the republic.

Schoenaich says they have hung the social boycott on old officers who dare to speak or work for the new regime.

It is true that the monarchists have put on their black list Schoenaich and his republican colleague, General Von Deinling, Baron Von Zedlitz-Truetzschler, publishers of revelations about the madness of the Kaiser's court, as well as other contemporaries of the old regime.

"The monarchist powers," says Schoenaich, "are fighting with all means at their disposition. One of these is the brutal weapon of the social boycott. It is very bitter to be forced to break with circles which one has loved his life long. This weapon is hence so effective, because most men shrink from this bitterness. But this weapon is also the most immoral one, for it kills the courage of honorable conviction." Answering charges that republican officers have broken their oath to their king, Schoenaich reveals that in the Great Headquarters during the war, a group of officers seriously considered forcibly removing the Kaiser.

"Whether that would have been valuable for the conduct of the war is a question by itself," he writes.

"But those who had this idea in mind were not traitors, but rather men who loved their fatherland and to whom the fatherland stood higher than the person of the monarch."

London's Dangers

London, Dec. 19.—The streets of this city are becoming increasingly perilous. During the first ten months of 1924 more than six hundred persons were killed and 61,964 injured in street accidents. This is an average of 100 deaths per annum more than 1923.

Due to this increasing traffic danger, Londoners are becoming more interested daily in safety first measures.

MOONSHINE WHISKEY

Like cheap soft coal usually finds its way to the ultimate consumer ONCE, but once for the most of us is enough.

The poisonous nature of the one rivals the fire hazard of the other and discerning people should pay out good money for neither.

"KENTUCKY SPECIAL" COAL is NOT Moonshine

But it contains a powerful "kick" just the same. By "kick" we refer to the high percentage of heat units per ton, which after all determines the actual value of any coal, rather than the weight over the scale.

We sell "Kentucky Special" because we know it is the best soft coal that money can buy, high in heat units, clean and very low in ash.

We stand behind this coal with a guarantee of entire satisfaction, removing the coal from your bin without extra expense in case you should feel at all dissatisfied with its performance. We don't know how to make a stronger guarantee than this.

Order a Ton Today and Be the Judge

We also handle some cheaper soft coal at $10.00 and $11.00 per ton that we can assure you is better quality than most soft coal being offered at these prices.

We are building our coal business in Brainerd on a reputation for CLEAN, HIGH QUALITY coal promptly delivered.

JOHN HEDSTROM IS VICTIM OF ASSAULT

Claims He Was Badly Beaten Last Evening and Threatened With Death

FOUR MEN HELD AS SUSPECTS

Police Called by Neighbor and Captain Graff and Officer Follow Snow Tracks

John Hedstrom, 824 Seventh avenue Northeast, was attacked, badly beaten and threatened with death, according to his story, on Friday evening, and George Shanks and Ole Rodman are being held as suspects. Oscar Erickson and G. H. Lamkin, found in company with Shanks and Rodman, are also being held. Mr. Hedstrom states that $5.50 were taken from him in the holdup.

The alleged crime is said to have taken place about 6:30 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Hedstrom owns the house at 824 Seventh avenue, and occupies rooms upstairs, which are reached by an outside stairway. He rents the first floor rooms to Frank C. Palmer and family.

Mr. Hedstrom states that he was outside the house and saw two men come in at the gate, one of them going up his stairway. He followed at once, to see what was wanted. No one was in the first room he entered and he passed into the second, where the man stepped out from behind the door and leveled a gun at him, stating, according to Mr. Hedstrom, that he intended to kill his victim. Mr. Hedstrom states that he was struck over the head with the revolver several times and his money taken from him.

He called for help and Mr. Palmer ran up to see what the trouble was. He was met at the head of the stairs by Hedstrom's assailant, still with the revolver in his hands, it is claimed, who told him to get back down stairs again or he would be shot.

Mr. Palmer notified the police immediately and Captain Graff with another officer were on the scene in a few minutes. They are said to have tracked the men through the snow to the home of C. R. Ralston, 1009 Seventh avenue where they arrested Shanks, Rodman, Erickson and Lamkin.

Mr. Hedstrom was badly beaten about the head and received a severe gash over one eye, but was able to be out on Saturday. He is employed at the scrap dock at the Northern Pacific shops, and is a bachelor.

Mr. Palmer is employed by George Ebinger. He states that he saw only the man with the gun at the head of the stairs, who ran north in the direction of the Ralston home. It is thought that the other man seen by Hedstrom remained near the gate while his associate went upstairs.

The four suspects will be given a preliminary hearing the first of the week.

MRC. C. BRUHN PASSED AWAY

Brainerd Lady Succumbed to Illness Extending Over Nearly a Year

LEAVES HUSBAND, 4 CHILDREN

Resident of City Since 1902, Was Deaconess of First Congregational Church

Mrs. Christian Bruhn, for many years a resident of Brainerd, passed away at the family home, 208 North Broadway, at 4:10 o'clock Saturday morning, following an illness extending over nearly a year.

Alma Viktoria Carlson was born in Westervik, Kalmar Law, Sweden, on June 4th, 1864. She immigrated to Canada in 1888 and was married there to Christian Bruhn on Jan. 1st, 1892, at Oak Lake, Manitoba.

Five children were born to this union, four daughters and one son, four of whom are living. They are Mrs. Alice Brady of Fargo, N. D., Mrs. Katherine Gilhaugen of Thief River Falls, Mrs. Rosa Hitt of Seattle, and Eric Bruhn of Minneapolis. A daughter Eva, died in infancy at Winnipeg.

The family moved from Oak Lake to Winnipeg, where they lived until 1902, in which year they came to Brainerd. They have been residents of this city ever since.

In addition to her husband and four children, Mrs. Bruhn is survived by a sister living in Vancouver, B. C., a brother in Dubois, Pa., and a brother in Manitoba.

Mrs. Bruhn was a beautiful Christian life. She was a member of the First Congregational church of Brainerd and at the time of her death was one of the deaconesses of that denomination. She held membership in Magnolia Court, No. 54, United Order of Foresters.

A loving wife and mother and a true friend to many, Mrs. Bruhn's passing will be a keen loss to her family and to a large number in this community.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is planned to hold the services on Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, at the Congregational church. Definite arrangements will be announced in Monday's Dispatch.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the Brainerd fire department for their quick, snappy and careful work at the greenhouse fire, for through their extreme efforts our business was saved.

The coins were dated 1770.

LADIES BAND BENEFIT SHOW

Committees are Stressing Every Effort to Attain Necessary Sales Quota

"EMPTY HANDS" IS THE PICTURE

Will be Shown at Park Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Next Week

Members of the Brainerd Ladies Band are stressing every effort to reach their quota in the advance ticket sale for their benefit movie, the proceeds of which are to go to the band to meet certain expenses, such as the purchase of a large bass horn and the compilation of the musical library.

"Empty Hands" is the name of the benefit picture, and it will be shown at the New Park theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. This film was chosen because of the strong appeal it will make to the largest number of Brainerd people. It is felt that the picture will please every taste, since it contains the many qualities demanded by critical audiences.

Jack Holt is featured in "Empty Hands," and is supported by Norma Shearer. The balance of the cast is of the same high quality, which added to the fact that the picture is a Paramount production, insures its being well worth seeing.

The plot centers about a beautiful girl and a handsome man ship wrecked on a desert island, from which they are finally rescued in a most extraordinary manner. The girl is a leader in her fast social set, the man a lover of the great outdoors. The two are forced to a primitive manner of living on the island, where they provide their own food, shelter and clothing with only the aid of a pocket-knife. The romance that results is of a very beautiful nature and offers complications seldom found in pictures.

To those who have felt that Adam and Eve led an ideal existence, "Empty Hands" will be an eye opener. Those who see Jack Holt and Norma Shearer struggling to keep alive without the aid of any of the modern conveniences, will feel mighty sorry for poor Adam and Eve.

Manager Irwin of the New Park, has assured the ladies band that "Empty Hands" is one of the finest photoplays of the present season and that the band members need feel no hesitancy in recommending the picture to their friends or offering the tickets for sale to the public.

Misunderstood

In Washington the other day a smart and pretty Irish girl driving a Ford was arrested by an Italian crossing policeman for failing to observe his signal. In the traffic court next morning the girl was asked by the judge how she came to be apprehended. The girl answered, "The cop was too fresh. I was in a hurry to do some shopping and he took me unawares."

On hearing this, the officer sprang to his feet in righteous wrath and blurted out: "Me take her unnerwears! Diavolo! I never touch her unnerwears or anywhere; she make a de big lie out of de whole cloth."—Pathfinder.

Easy Electric Vacuum Washer

This Is The Winning Letter

and Mrs. F. W. Rosel, Box 256, West Brainerd gets the $10 gold piece offered by us to the one who would write the best letter plainly stating the points of superiority the EASY has over other washers.

Read Mrs. Rosel's Letter:

Brainerd, Minnesota.

December 6th, 1924.

The Taylor Sales Service,

Dear Sir:

After examining and seeing at least ten makes of electric washers demonstrated, your machine, the "Easy Washer," seems to speak for itself and stand out as superior to others.

The points which I consider to be most in its favor are:

1—ITS COMPACTNESS, which is important in the modern small house.

2—IT IS EASILY MOVED and all parts are light to handle.

3—IT HAS AN ATTRACTIVE APPEARANCE.

These points are possibly of but minor importance, yet help in making a sale, because any housewife enjoys most the devices of which she can be proud and which are small and easy to handle.

The following points, however, are of major importance and are fully demonstrated in the Easy Washer:

1—ITS SIMPLICITY. This makes the operation of the machine possible with but few instructions and little knowledge of machinery.

2—IT IS EASY TO CLEAN. The "Easy" has no crevices to clean and the three separate vacuum cups are easier to clean than the three concentric cups of other makes.

3—ITS GAS HEATER. This insures hot water throughout the entire washing process and makes boiling of the clothes unnecessary if so desired. This saves both time and labor.

4—THE AUTOMATIC SHUTOFF. This insures any overloading of the machine and wringer and prevents one from blowing out the fuse.

5—THE SWINGING ADJUSTABLE WRINGER. This is preferable to the self adjusting type because with the adjustable type the pressure can be regulated to suit the operator.

6—THE COVERED GEARS, which are important in order to prevent body accidents and are almost necessary when children are present.

7—SUCTION AND PRESSURE MOTION. This is preferable because the machine washes the clothes cleaner and whiter with less wear on the clothes than would a machine of the "dolly type" or the so-called gyrating type. There are no inside devices which can in any way tangle or tear even very delicate articles.

Yours truly,

MRC. C. BRUHN PASSED AWAY

Brainerd Lady Succumbed to Illness Extending Over Nearly a Year

LEAVES HUSBAND, 4 CHILDREN

Resident of City Since 1902, Was Deaconess of First Congregational Church

Mrs. Christian Bruhn, for many years a resident of Brainerd, passed away at the family home, 208 North Broadway, at 4:10 o'clock Saturday morning, following an illness extending over nearly a year.

Alma Viktoria Carlson was born in Westervik, Kalmar Law, Sweden, on June 4th, 1864. She immigrated to Canada in 1888 and was married there to Christian Bruhn on Jan. 1st, 1892, at Oak Lake, Manitoba.

Five children were born to this union, four daughters and one son, four of whom are living. They are Mrs. Alice Brady of Fargo, N. D., Mrs. Katherine Gilhausen of Thief River Falls, Mrs. Rosa Hitt of Seattle, and Eric Bruhn of Minneapolis. A daughter Eva, died in infancy at Winnipeg.

The family moved from Oak Lake to Winnipeg, where they lived until 1902, in which year they came to Brainerd. They have been residents of this city ever since.

In addition to her husband and four children, Mrs. Bruhn is survived by a sister living in Vancouver, B. C., a brother in Dubois, Pa., and a brother in Manitoba.

Mrs. Bruhn's was a beautiful Christian life. She was a member of the First Congregational church of Brainerd and at the time of her death was one of the deaconesses of that denomination. She held membership in Magnolia Court, No. 54, United Order of Foresters.

A loving wife and mother and a true friend to many, Mrs. Bruhn's passing will be a keen loss to her family and to a large number in this community.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is planned to hold the services on Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, at the Congregational church. Definite arrangements will be announced in Monday's Dispatch.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the Brainerd fire department for their quick, snappy and careful work at the greenhouse fire, for through their extreme efforts our business was saved.

It Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson.

Spanish Treasure Revealed

After thirty years George W. Hawkins of Setauket, Long Island, N. Y., has revealed the fact that he has dug up a number of Spanish gold coins. Year by year he disposed of them to numismatists at a premium, there being 100 in all. He discovered the coins while digging holes for bean poles in 1894. Remnants of a canvas bag were found. The coins were dated 1770.

LADIES BAND BENEFIT SHOW

"EMPTY HANDS" IS THE PICTURE

Will be Shown at Park Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Next Week

Members of the Brainerd Ladies Band are stressing every effort to reach their quota in the advance ticket sale for their benefit movie, the proceeds of which are to go to the band to meet certain expenses, such as the purchase of a large bass horn and the compilation of the musical library.

"Empty Hands" is the name of the benefit picture, and it will be shown at the New Park theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. This film was chosen because of the strong appeal it will make to the largest number of Brainerd people. It is felt that the picture will please every taste, since it contains the many qualities demanded by critical audiences.

Jack Holt is featured in "Empty Hands," and is supported by Norma Shearer. The balance of the cast is of the same high quality, which added to the fact that the picture is a Paramount production, insures its being well worth seeing.

The plot centers about a beautiful girl and a handsome man ship wrecked on a desert island, from which they are finally rescued in a most extraordinary manner. The girl is a leader in her fast social set, the man a lover of the great outdoors. The two are forced to a primitive manner of living on the island, where they provide their own food, shelter and clothing with only the aid of a pocket-knife. The romance that results is of a very beautiful nature and offers complications seldom found in pictures.

To those who have felt that Adam and Eve led an ideal existence, "Empty Hands" will be an eye opener. Those who see Jack Holt and Norma Shearer struggling to keep alive without the aid of any of the modern conveniences, will feel mighty sorry for poor Adam and Eve.

Manager Irwin of the New Park has assured the ladies band that "Empty Hands" is one of the finest photoplays of the present season and that the band members need feel no hesitancy in recommending the picture to their friends or offering the tickets for sale to the public.

Misunderstood

In Washington the other day a smart and pretty Irish girl driving a Ford was arrested by an Italian crossing policeman for failing to observe his signal. In the traffic court next morning the girl was asked by the judge how she came to be apprehended. The girl answered, "The cop was too fresh. I was in a hurry to do some shopping and he took me unawares."

On hearing this, the officer sprang to his feet in righteous wrath and blurted out: "Me take her unnerwears! Diavolo! I never touch her unnerwears or anywhere; she make a de big lie out of de whole cloth."—Pathfinder.

Easy Electric Vacuum Washer

This Is The Winning Letter

and Mrs. F. W. Rosel, Box 256, West Brainerd gets the $10 gold piece offered by us to the one who would write the best letter plainly stating the points of superiority the EASY has over other washers.

Read Mrs. Rosel's Letter:

Brainerd, Minnesota.

December 6th, 1924.

The Taylor Sales Service,

Dear Sir:

After examining and seeing at least ten makes of electric washers demonstrated, your machine, the "Easy Washer," seems to speak for itself and stand out as superior to others.

The points which I consider to be most in its favor are:

1—ITS COMPACTNESS, which is important in the modern small house.

2—IT IS EASILY MOVED and all parts are light to handle.

3—IT HAS AN ATTRACTIVE APPEARANCE.

These points are possibly of but minor importance, yet help in making a sale, because any housewife enjoys most the devices of which she can be proud and which are small and easy to handle.

The following points, however, are of major importance and are fully demonstrated in the Easy Washer:

1—ITS SIMPLICITY. This makes the operation of the machine possible with but few instructions and little knowledge of machinery.

2—IT IS EASY TO CLEAN. The "Easy" has no crevices to clean and the three separate vacuum cups are easier to clean than the three concentric cups of other makes.

3—ITS GAS HEATER. This insures hot water throughout the entire washing process and makes boiling of the clothes unnecessary if so desired. This saves both time and labor.

4 THE AUTOMATIC SHUTOFF. This insures any overloading of the machine and wringer and prevents one from blowing out the fuse.

5—THE SWINGING ADJUSTABLE WRINGER. This is preferable to the self adjusting type because with the adjustable type the pressure can be regulated to suit the operator.

6—THE COVERED GEARS, which are important in order to prevent body accidents and are almost necessary when children are present.

7—SUCTION AND PRESSURE MOTION. This is preferable because the machine washes the clothes cleaner and whiter with less wear on the clothes than would a machine of the "dolly type" or the so-called gyrating type. There are no inside devices which can in any way tangle or tear even very delicate articles.

Yours truly,

GREATEST YEAR IN BASEBALL WAS 1924

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 20.—Just two days before the end of the season a nasty scandal broke out in the National League and stained what otherwise would have been baseball's most distinguished season. With that one exception baseball had its most interesting and most prosperous season in 1924.

The major league pennant races were not decided until the last week of the season and it was the closeness of the competition for the championship in the National League that caused two members of the New York Giants to stoop to an attempt at bribery to clinch the pennant.

The surprising Brooklyn Robins that had been turned from a second division club into a pennant contender by the brilliant pitching of the great Dazzy Vance chased the Giants to the wire. With only two games remaining on the schedule, the Giants had to win one game from the Phillies to clinch the championship.

Before the game, according to his confession, Jimmy O'Connell, substitute outfielder for the Giants, who had been purchased from the San Francisco Pacific Coast League club for $75,000, approached Heinie Sand, the Philadelphia shortstop and offered him $500 if he would not "bear down" in the game. "Bearing down," in baseball parlance, is to try hard.

Sand rejected the offer and told his manager, Art Fletcher what O'Connell had proposed to him. Fletcher notified John A. Heydler, president of the National League and Heydler in turn laid the case before Commissioner Landis.

The commissioner called O'Connell on the carpet and the youngster confessed, saying that Cozy Dolan, coach of the team, had prompted him to do it and that Kelly, Frisch and Young knew what he had done. Landis declared O'Connell and Dolan ineligible and absolved Kelly, Frisch and Young from any connection with the attempted bribe.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, said that there was more behind the case than had been made public and he demanded that the world's series be called off.

Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, attacked the Giants as having been connected with other scandals in the past and said that the team should be disqualified and Brooklyn be declared the pennant winner.

Commissioner Landis refused to call off the series and it was played between the New York Giants and the Washington Senators. It was not the best played of all series, but it was the most interesting. Washington won the world's championship by taking the seventh game in the twelfth inning with the popular Walter Johnson in the box.

Johnson was expected to be the big hero of the series, but he failed to win his first two starts and he got the credit for winning the game only after he had gone in to pitch late in the game as a relief pitcher.

The series established a new record for attendance and gate receipts despite the fact that the Washington ball park was less than half the size of the huge New York Yankee stadium where half of the series had been played in 1923.

The victory of Washington was the most popular ever scored in a world's series. The entire nation was behind the Senators in the game fight for their first pennant. The club was managed by Bucky Harris, a twenty-seven year old player and it was being kept in the race by Walter Johnson, the most popular player that ever wore a uniform.

President Coolidge received telegraphic reports of the last games of the season in the White House and he attended all the games played in Washington during the series.

The victory of the Washington club in the world's series did much to overcome the bad effects of the scandal that broke just when the nation was celebrating a most popular victory.

The major league pennant races were filled with interesting features. The surprising form of the Washington and Brooklyn clubs were the outstanding events of the season. Washington started the season with only a prospect for the second division, but the magnetic young Harris inspired the team and it outlasted the New York Yankees in a long and bitter fight.

In winning the National League championship the Giants made a new record by winning four pennants in successive years. The victory also established John J. McGraw as the greatest manager of all time.

Rogers Hornsby, the great St. Louis star, won the National League batting championship and made a new record. The one and only Babe Ruth, the home run king of the New York Yankees displaced Harry Heilmann, Detroit outfielder as the American League batting champion and he also led the major leagues in home run hitting.

Walter Johnson led the American League pitchers and received the prize as the league's most valuable player. Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn, led the National League pitchers and was voted the most valuable player in his league.

The same high standard of play prevailed in the minor leagues where a number of new records were established.

Baltimore won the International League pennant for the sixth successive time and made a new record for all baseball. The best that has been done in the major leagues was four straight by the New York Giants.

Baltimore ran away from everything in the International League, but did not fare so well in inter-league competition. The Orioles were beaten by the Hartford club of the Eastern League, of a much lower classification and in the "little world's series" they were again defeated by the St. Paul club, pennant winners of the American Association. St. Paul went to Seattle to play the winners of the Pacific Coast League championship, but the series had to be called off on account of bad weather.

Memphis and Ft. Worth also had a little world's series and it was won by Ft. Worth. It was the only one of the series arranged in the minor leagues that was a financial success.

ST. PAUL MAN SUES PIRATES FOR $10,000

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Suit for $10,000 has been filed in federal court here against the owners of the Pittsburgh club of the National league by L. S. McKenna, St. Paul, who claims that sum is due him for the service of Roy Elsh, White Sox outfielder. McKenna in 1922, part owner of the Sioux City club in the Western league, sold

Elsh to the Pirates, but before the money was paid Commissioner Landis awarded the player to the White Sox.

BRAINERD 21, BEMIDJI 19 LAST NIGHT GAME

LOCALS WIN IN GAME FEATURED
BY FAST PLAY-
ING

TWO OVERTIME PERIODS, FIVE
MINUTES EACH, RE-QUIRED

Playing two five-minute periods overtime, Brainerd high school defeated Bemidji high at Brainerd high school auditorium Friday night 21 to 19. It gave experts a chance to see teams from different districts lined up, as Bemidji is from the ninth district and Brainerd from the third region, eleventh district.

Bemidji's team, rated until last Sunday by the Minneapolis Journal, as one of the strongest in northern Minnesota, has such foundation grounded in its four veteran players, Simons, Hickerson Sullivan and Wilson. Brainerd's quint is composed of new material with only one veteran in the lineup. Stars for Bemidji were Simons and Sullivan. For Brainerd, Rosenberg played a nice floor game, ably backed by Engstrom, Dieckhaus and Tribur. The score 17 to 17, advanced to 19 to 19 in the first overtime period. In the next period Brainerd won 21 to 19.

A week ago Brainerd had defeated Staples high on the latter's own gym floor 24 to 22. In practice games Brainerd defeated Pequot 38 to 8 and in various games with independents in Brainerd won four games from the latter.

Brainerd high's schedule is January 9 Crosby here; Jan. 16, Little Falls here; Jan. 23, Aitkin here; Jan. 30, Wadena there; Feb. 6, Crosby at Crosby; Feb. 13, Wadena here; Feb. 20, Aitkin at Aitkin; Feb. 27, Little Falls at Little Falls. It is also hoped, said Coach Krueger, to have a game with Pine River and a return game with Bemidji.

A preliminary last night was waged by two younger teams, the Hi-Y quint defeating the Y. M. C. A. Cubs 15 to 7.

BASKETBALL NOTES OF VICINITY

Basketball is enjoying a revival in Walker. The town teams plans playing Cass Lake town team at Cass Lake next Wednesday evening. The boys and girls high school teams played the high school teams of Laporte Friday evening. Laporte has quite a reputation, having recently defeated Hackensack and Park Rapids.

The balance of Little Falls high school schedule: Dec. 19, Wadena at Little Falls; Jan. 9, Staples at Little Falls; Jan. 16, Brainerd at Brainerd; Jan. 23, St. Cloud at St. Cloud; Feb. 6, Staples at Staples; Feb. 13, Crosby-Ironton at Little Falls; Feb. 27, Brainerd at Little Falls.

Coach Helland has every member of the first team attempting 50 free throws each evening at practice. The scores are kept and at the close the player with the best record in this event will be awarded a silver basketball charm.

Cass Lake high has but one veteran from last year's squad, Harry Potvin, named captain, but laid up with an injured leg. The girls' basketball team has good material. Lauretta Mettel is captain. About eleven games will be played during the season, six in Cass Lake and five away.

Lively's Ford repair department use only genuine Ford parts, sold at Ford prices.

George Abramson of Virginia, Minn., regular right guard on the University of Minnesota football team for three years, stood out better than any of his team-mates by comparison with other top notchers of the 1924 football season, having been given a first team berth on three all-western eleven and a second or third team position on several others. Abramson's tackling was deadly throughout the season, his ability to break through and smear the plays of the opposition behind runners. By far the greater part of the line having cut down scores of Minnesota's advances were made through or around the side of the line on which he played. Built low to the ground, and having unusual power in his arms and legs, "Abe" has the ideal physique for a guard. His position will be one of the hardest for Bill Spaulding and Len Frank to fill when the 1925 season begins.

Watertown Wins

Watertown, S. D., Dec. 19.—Watertown high school basketball team opened its season last night against the Gary team and won a 17 to 7 victory. The victors showed surprising strength for so early in the season. Thompson and Gavin starred for the victors.

USE FOR SALE ADS FOR RESULTS

Herman Ascher, formerly a star at Minneapolis East high school, will guide the University of Minnesota football team as captain in 1925. Ascher found himself the past year and became a fixture at right half-back due to his triple abilities at punting, knocking down passes and gaining ground by swift, sharp dashes off-tackle. Ascher is a natural athlete and is one of the best in-fielders in the western conference and one of the Minnesota lettermen in baseball as well as football. Pete

ST. THOMAS HIGH HAS TOUGH GRIND ON FLOOR THIS YEAR

St. Thomas high basketball team has a hard schedule this fall.

Rev. J. Gibbs, coach and manager of the team, has booked games with some of the best high school teams in Minnesota. The Cadet high will also play its regular games in the academy league.

Several men have been trying out for the team, but Coach Gibbs has cut the squad so that it now has only Capt. Goodman, Shehan, Kennedy, Clancy, Viola, Pesek, O'Brien and Ryan. The men will report for practice after the holidays and will take daily workouts against St. Thomas varsity five.

Rev. Gibbs is trying to arrange a trip on the range which will include games with Duluth Cathedral and Buhl. The Cadet high coach is also trying to book more Twin City games.

GREATEST YEAR IN BASEBALL WAS 1924

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 20.—Just two days before the end of the season a nasty scandal broke out in the National League and stained what otherwise would have been baseball's most distinguished season. With that one exception baseball had its most interesting and most prosperous season in 1924.

The major league pennant races were not decided until the last week of the season and it was the closeness of the competition for the championship in the National League that caused two members of the New York Giants to stoop to an attempt at bribery to clinch the pennant.

The surprising Brooklyn Robins that had been turned from a second division club into a pennant contender by the brilliant pitching of the great Dazzy Vance chased the Giants to the wire. With only two games remaining on the schedule, the Giants had to win one game from the Phillies to clinch the championship.

Before the game, according to his confession, Jimmy O'Connell, substitute outfielder for the Giants, who had been purchased from the San Francisco Pacific Coast League club for $75,000, approached Heinie Sand, the Philadelphia shortstop and offered him $500 if he would not "bear down" in the game. "Bearing down," in baseball parlance, is to try hard.

Sand rejected the offer and told his manager, Art Fletcher what O'Connell had proposed to him. Fletcher notified John A. Heydler, president of the National League and Heydler in turn laid the case before Commissioner Landis.

The commissioner called O'Connell on the carpet and the youngster confessed, saying that Cozy Dolan, coach of the team, had prompted him to do it and that Kelly, Frisch and Young knew what he had done. Landis declared O'Connell and Dolan ineligible and absolved Kelly, Frisch and Young from any connection with the attempted bribe.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, said that there was more behind the case than had been made public and he demanded that the world's series be called off.

Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, attacked the Giants as having been connected with other scandals in the past and said that the team should be disqualified and Brooklyn be declared the pennant winner.

Commissioner Landis refused to call off the series and it was played between the New York Giants and the Washington Senators. It was not the best played of all series, but it was the most interesting. Washington won the world's championship by taking the seventh game in the twelfth inning with the popular Walter Johnson in the box.

Johnson was expected to be the big hero of the series, but he failed to win his first two starts and he got the credit for winning the game only after he had gone in to pitch late in the game as a relief pitcher.

The series established a new record for attendance and gate receipts despite the fact that the Washington ball park was less than half the size of the huge New York Yankee stadium where half of the series had been played in 1923.

The victory of Washington was the most popular ever scored in a world's series. The entire nation was behind the Senators in the game fight for their first pennant. The club was managed by Bucky Harris, a twenty-seven year old player and it was being kept in the race by Walter Johnson, the most popular player that ever wore a uniform.

President Coolidge received telegraphic reports of the last games of the season in the White House and he attended all the games played in Washington during the series.

The victory of the Washington club in the world's series did much to overcome the bad effects of the scandal that broke just when the nation was celebrating a most popular victory.

The major league pennant races were filled with interesting features. The surprising form of the Washington and Brooklyn clubs were the outstanding events of the season. Washington started the season with only a prospect for the second division, but the magnetic young Harris inspired the team and it outlasted the New York Yankees in a long and bitter fight.

In winning the National League championship the Giants made a new record by winning four pennants in successive years. The victory also established John J. McGraw as the greatest manager of all time.

Rogers Hornsby, the great St. Louis star, won the National League batting championship and made a new record. The one and only Babe Ruth, the home run king of the New York Yankees displaced Harry Heilmann, Detroit outfielder as the American League batting champion and he also led the major leagues in home run hitting.

Walter Johnson led the American League pitchers and received the prize as the league's most valuable player. Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn, led the National League pitchers and was voted the most valuable player in his league.

The same high standard of play prevailed in the minor leagues where a number of new records were established.

Baltimore won the International League pennant for the sixth successive time and made a new record for all baseball. The best that has been done in the major leagues was four straight by the New York Giants.

Baltimore ran away from everything in the International League, but did not fare so well in inter-league competition. The Orioles were beaten by the Hartford club of the Eastern League, of a much lower classification and in the "little world's series" they were again defeated by the St. Paul club, pennant winners of the American Association. St. Paul went to Seattle to play the winners of the Pacific Coast League championship, but the series had to be called off on account of bad weather.

Memphis and Ft. Worth also had a little world's series and it was won by Ft. Worth. It was the only one of the series arranged in the minor leagues that was a financial success.

BRAINERD 21,
BEMIDJI 19
LAST NIGHT GAMELOCALS WIN IN GAME FEATURED
BY FAST PLAY-
INGTWO OVERTIME PERIODS, FIVE
MINUTES EACH, RE-QUIRED

Playing two five-minute periods overtime, Brainerd high school defeated Bemidji high at Brainerd high school auditorium Friday night 21 to 19. It gave experts a chance to see teams from different districts lined up, as Bemidji is from the ninth district and Brainerd from the third region, eleventh district.

Bemidji's team, rated until last Sunday by the Minneapolis Journal, as one of the strongest in northern Minnesota, has such foundation grounded in its four veteran players, Simons, Hickerson Sullivan and Wilson. Brainerd's quint is composed of new material with only one veteran in the lineup. Stars for Bemidji were Simons and Sullivan. For Brainerd, Rosenberg played a nice floor game, ably backed by Engstrom, Dieckhaus and Tribur. The score 17 to 17, advanced to 19 to 19 in the first overtime period. In the next period Brainerd won 21 to 19.

A week ago Brainerd high defeated Staples high on the latter's own gym floor 24 to 22. In practice games, Brainerd defeated Pequot 38 to 8 and in various games with independents in Brainerd won four games from the latter.

Brainerd high's schedule is January 9 Crosby here; Jan. 16, Little Falls here; Jan. 23, Aitkin here; Jan. 30, Wadena there; Feb. 6, Crosby at Crosby; Feb. 13, Wadena here; Feb. 20, Aitkin at Aitkin; Feb. 27, Little Falls at Little Falls. It is also hoped, said Coach Krueger, to have a game with Pine River and a return game with Bemidji.

A preliminary last night was waged by two younger teams, the Hi-Y quint defeating the Y. M. C. A. Cubs 15 to 7.

BASKETBALL
NOTES OF VICINITY

Basketball is enjoying a revival in Walker. The town teams plans playing Cass Lake town team at Cass Lake next Wednesday evening. The boys and girls high school teams played the high school teams of Laporte Friday evening. Laporte has quite a reputation, having recently defeated Hackensack and Park Rapids.

The balance of Little Falls high school schedule: Dec. 19, Wadena at Little Falls; Jan. 9, Staples at Little Falls; Jan. 16, Brainerd at Brainerd; Jan. 23, St. Cloud at St. Cloud; Feb. 6, Staples at Staples; Feb. 13, Crosby-Ironton at Little Falls; Feb. 27, Brainerd at Little Falls.

Coach Helland has every member of the first team attempting 50 free throws each evening at practice. The scores are kept and at the close the player with the best record in this event will be awarded a silver basketball charm.

Cass Lake high has but one veteran from last year's squad, Harry Potvin, named captain, but laid up with an injured leg. The girls' basketball team has good material. Lauretta Mettel is captain. About eleven games will be played during the season, six in Cass Lake and five away.

Lively's Ford repair department use only genuine Ford parts, sold at Ford prices.

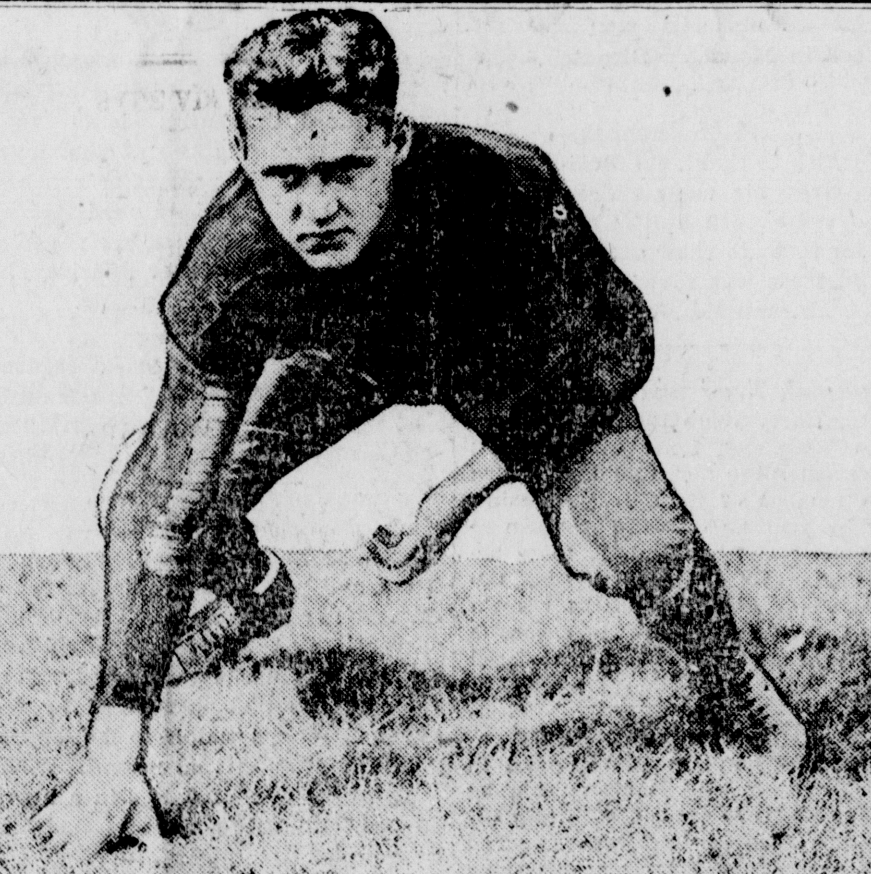

George Abramson of Virginia, Minn., regular right guard on the University of Minnesota football team for three years, stood out better than any of his team-mates by comparison with other top notches of the 1924 football season, having been given a first team berth on three all-western elevens and a second or third team position on several others. Abramson's tackling was deadly throughout the season, his ability to break through and smear the plays of the opposition behind runners. By far the greater part of the line having cut down scores of Minnesota's advances were made through or around the side of the line on which he played. Built low to the ground, and having unusual power in his arms and legs, "Abe" has the ideal physique for a guard. His position will be one of the hardest for Bill Spaulding and Len Frank to fill when the 1925 season begins.

Watertown Wins

Watertown, S. D., Dec. 19.—Watertown high school basketball team opened its season last night against the Gary team and won a 17 to 7 victory. The victors showed surprising strength for so early in the season. Thompson and Gavin starred for the victors.

Herman Ascher, formerly a star at Minneapolis East high school, will guide the University of Minnesota football team as captain in 1925. Ascher found himself the past year and became a fixture at right half-back due to his triple abilities at punting, knocking down passes and gaining ground by swift, sharp dashes off-tackle. Ascher is a natural athlete and is one of the best in-fielders in the western conference and one of the Minnesota lettermen in baseball as well as football. Pete

ST. THOMAS HIGH
HAS TOUGH GRIND
ON FLOOR THIS YEAR

St. Thomas high basketball team has a hard schedule this fall.

Rev. J. Gibbs, coach and manager of the team, has booked games with some of the best high school teams in Minnesota. The Cadet high will also play its regular games in the academy league.

Several men have been trying out for the team, but Coach Gibbs has cut the squad so that it now has only Capt. Goodman, Shehan, Kennedy, Clancy, Viola, Pesek, O'Brien and Ryan. The men will report for practice after the holidays and will take daily workouts against St. Thomas varsity five.

Rev. Gibbs is trying to arrange a trip on the range which will include games with Duluth Cathedral and Buhl. The Cadet high coach is also trying to book more Twin City games.

HELP KIDNEYS
BY DRINKING

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys And Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obligating you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Suit for $10,000 has been filed in federal court here against the owners of the Pittsburgh club of the National League by L. S. Elish to the Pirates, but before the money was paid Commissioner Landis awarded the player to the White Sox.
